CONGRATULATIONS to children from our parish who made their First Holy Communion this Saturday. Let us keep these children and their families in our prayers.

SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI is celebrated this Sunday. St Teresa of Calcutta is said to have remarked: "When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now." As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we give thanks for this most precious gift from God, the Holy Eucharist, Jesus' abiding and substantial presence with us, veiled beneath the appearance of bread and wine. His presence is dynamic. When we gather around the Eucharist, Jesus relates to us in the immediate circumstances of our life. He is loving us and strengthening us with his grace, that the beauty of his life may be alive within us.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION will start at 2.30 pm at the Oxford Oratory, processing through the city to the University Catholic Chaplaincy, stopping at Blackfriars for a sermon on the way. Accompanied by a marching band. Ends with Benediction at the Chaplaincy, followed by refreshments.

SVP: After 11am Mass this Sunday, the Saint Vincent de Paul group will be doing a fundraising tea/coffee and cake. You are all invited. Homemade cakes will also be on sale. Your continuing support is much appreciated.
