EDUCATION SUNDAY observed on 8th September, marks the beginning of the academic year with a focus on praying for those in our Catholic schools, colleges and universities. Catholic educators hold a unique role in positively influencing young lives through faith and hope. The message draws parallels between Jesus' healing of the deaf man in Mark's Gospel and the spiritual and social mission of Catholic education, emphasising the importance of hearing, living and evangelising the Good News of Jesus Christ both in our Catholic schools and through attendance at Mass for spiritual growth through the Eucharist. The Archdiocese of Birmingham is privileged to educate over 90,000 young people in Catholic schools, fostering a community of faith, prayer, and academic excellence that outperforms national standards.

CONGRATUALIONS to the parents of Sienna-Marie R. E. Webber-Kerry on the occasion of the baptism of their child next Saturday.

INTERNATIONAL CULTURES EVENING CELEBRATION will be held in our parish on Saturday 12th October, 7pm-10pm in the parish hall. This will be also a fundraising event to support our parish and its affiliate charitable organisations.
