PARISH VISITATION: Bishop Richard Walker, an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Birmingham will come to our parish for the next weekend 21/22 March to carry out the parish visitation. The episcopal visitation is required by Canon Law and is carried out by the diocesan bishop every five years. Its purpose is administrative oversight (review parish records, inspect financial situation of the parish and the condition of church property) with pastoral care (meeting with the sick, the parish staff and representatives of different parish groups). After 11am Sunday Mass, Bishop Richard will join us for tea/coffee in the parish hall.
