WE WELCOME Father PAT ARMSTRONG, former parish priest of Bl. Dominic Barberi, who will join our 11am Mass this Sunday (30th) to celebrate his 90th Birthday with us. Fr Pat was the parish priest here from 1982 till 2000 and many parishioners have still a fond memory of him. We wish him HAPPY BIRTHDAY, many God's blessings and good health. After Mass the parishioners are invited to join the buffet in the parish hall sponsored by the Oxford Irish Society to which Father Pat is President.

GREETINGS AND PRAYERS: On the occasion of our feast of Blessed Dominic Barberi, which we celebrated last Wednesday, Sister Ingrid would like to pass on to all parishioners her best wishes and greetings, and she keeps all of us in her prayers. Sister Ingrid is now in Merkelbeek, in the Dutch province of Limburg. It is located near the Belgian and German border. Her main task is pastoral care for families. Thank you Sister Ingrid for your wishes and prayers, and we also pray for you and your community!

CHILDREN LITURGY: We are preparing to re-introduce the children liturgy at Sunday Masses. We hope that we will be able to start this soon.

SOME parishioners, married couple with a grown up daughter are looking for somewhere to rent. If you can help, please contact Fr Ziggy

DONATIONS: Cashless donations can be made via the DONA machine in the Church entrance or you can donate via this website <https://donate.mydona.com/blessed-dominic-barberi-church> or by scanning QR code.
